It must be an intentional decision to not be able to comment o r message location about orders. I've been using the app for over a year and it works fine as long as your order is not messed up. If it is incorrect d o t even bother with the app.

So nice that they have an app to order from. I do wish there w as a way to view what you ordered. I put in my first order but can't re member what I ordered so I wish they had that button. Also if they coul d pick the delivery time after putting order in the cart. I had to cancel the wh ole order just to change the time. Other than that, nice design, smooth op. & hoping they could add and make the improvements

Smooth fast app, much better than going to the website and having to do
