It's a common misconception that a supernatural thriller is automatically a combination of horror and thriller, but it will be something that features characters or themes usually associated with fantasy and/or horror genres, and will make them tense or thriller-like.

So if something is a supernatural thriller, that doesn't automatically mean it's a combination of horror and thriller, but it will be something that features characters or themes usually associated with fantasy and/or horror genres, and will make them tense or thriller-like.
