Florian Wirtz is a professional footballer who plays as a forward for Bayer Leverkusen and the Germany national team. He is known for his speed, dribbling, and goal-scoring ability.

Wirtz was born on May 3, 1998, in Florschütz, Germany. He started playing football at a young age and joined Bayer Leverkusen's youth academy in 2015. He made his professional debut for the club in 2017 and has since become a key player in their attack.

Wirtz has represented Germany at various youth levels, including the U17, U19, and U21 teams. He made his senior international debut in 2020 and has since scored several goals for his country. He is also a regular participant in the UEFA Euro and FIFA World Cup tournaments.

Wirtz's playing style is characterized by his quick pace and ability to cut inside from the right wing to shoot or pass. He is also a strong dribbler and has the ability to play through the defense. His versatility allows him to play in various positions, including forward, winger, and attacking midfielder.

Wirtz has won several domestic and international titles with Bayer Leverkusen, including the Bundesliga, DFB-Pokal, and UEFA Europa League. He is also a member of the German national team and has been a key player in their success in recent years.

Wirtz's market value is estimated to be around €100 million, making him one of the most valuable players in the world. He is expected to continue his upward trajectory in the coming years.
